

Legal Plans

Digital estate planning solution, through Willing, a MetLife company, at no cost to you through July 31, 2020.

Self-guided estate planning in as little as 15 minutes – at no cost to you

Most of us know we need important estate planning documents like wills, advance directives and powers of attorney, but haven't had the time to complete the documents. Through Willing.com, a MetLife company, we make it easy for you to complete the estate planning documents you need to designate your wishes for healthcare, as well as protect your family and assets - at no cost to you.

Since launching this no-cost offer for healthcare workers, we have helped thousands improve their peace of mind, and their feedback shows their appreciation for the service.

What users are saying:

As a single mother I have been wanting and needing to get a will done to protect me, my children and my assets. The MetLife format made the process of doing it effortless. I was able to write my will, edit it and print it in less than 30 minutes. Amazing."

"I think it is awesome that MetLife is offering this to healthcare workers in this COVID-19 crisis, and not only that, but at a time when your loved one is sick or going through it, and you have a lot on your mind already. Now, you don't have to worry about what to do for them if anything happens, it's all set up already."

"The process for completing the documents was very easy and did not take long to complete. This is an awesome free service that is greatly needed, especially during times like this. I feel better knowing that I now have my wishes in writing in the event of medical emergency or death."
